Dear Friends,

As we finally welcome spring in Saskatoon, I want to share with you a small snapshot of the work I've done in Saskatoon over the winter as your representative.

Many people ask what I do as an MP outside of sitting in Parliament, and honestly, I'm busier in Saskatoon than I am in Ottawa! It's my job to represent Saskatoon West, and to do so I need to be engaged and know what is important to our community. I spend my days talking with people, understanding the issues important to them and how the government can best serve them.

On top of that, the staff at my constituency office work hard to address issues people may have with the federal government. We will work directly with Service Canada, Immigration, CRA, or any government agency to resolve it. This service is open to all constituents, and during a typical month we see an average of 100 new cases!

I'm honoured to serve as your Member of Parliament, and I hope we can connect soon. If you have any pressing matters or any important issue you would like to raise with me, feel free to contact me or my office any time.

Brad in Saskatoon West

I visited Baba's Closet on 51st Street, where Netti and her team provide free clothes, furniture, and supplies to newly arriving Ukrainian refugees.

I joined the grand opening of Golden Broasted Chicken, a new restaurant on 22nd Street and one of many new small businesses finding success on the west side.

I experienced a late-night ride with Saskatoon Police Service throughout Saskatoon West. With a growing concern of crime in our community, seeing the city through the lens of law enforcement provided valuable insight into the needs of our community.
